

Dear Mr. Oppenheimer:

This was poem came to the Seven Arts through me. It might interest you to read it.

I have been wrestling with an angel and a devil during the past two months. And it is indeed terrible to be between two powers so different. In a week or so I shall leave town for a much needed rest in the country.
May I not see you before I go?

Faithfully yours
Kahlil Gibran
